

Influenced by Klimt, I use pattern in my work both as a unifying factor and to create beauty. This piece is an exploration of texture and mixed media, which I approached with a sense of playfulness – it was quite literally fun to make!

— Fiona Legg, Artist

NATIONAL FARMERS FOUNDATION

The National Farmers Union-Ontario's Local Food Advocates Network brings together both professionals and community members who understand that local food can help us educate young people, improve health, and give us a deeper connection to nature.